WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT YOUR PRESCRIPTION:

As Registered Pharmacists, professional men, we don't sell our wares "door-to-door" nor do we solicit prescription business through the mail. Though we wear the hat of a retail store owner, selling other merchandise traditionally related to the drug store, our prescription service is the heart of our business. We have a responsibility to maintain if we're to retain the professional trust of your doctor. Because of our experience and integrity in compounding and dispensing only the freshest drugs, with the most modein equipment, you need never fear an impersonal, unconcerned, nor irresponsible approach to the filling of your prescriptions. We are mindful of our responsibility and reputation, always anxious to earn your complete confidence.

For the highest pharmaceutical standards, low prices consistent with quality and the personal attention you can always depend upon, bring your prescriptions to

DEXTER - The Dexter Elks Club was organized yesterday at 3 p.m. at the junior high school ditorium. Mayor Willis Connor gave the opening speech titled 'Your Place in the Community"

In the speech, he talked of cood leadership that would come to the community from club and the many services the club will give the city.

A showing of slides followed which pictured Elks Club activities

The Eiks have five main words to go by: charity, justice, brotherly love, and fidelity. The club holds dances, have a Little League baseball team, and help the poor and handicapped. Throughout many states, the Elks have mobile health units to help people who can't get medical help elsewhere.

Members of the club were formally initiated.

Missouri Geological Survey

ROLLA, Mo., March 1970 -The Missouri Geological Survey in Rolla celebrates its 100th birthday this month. The second time around, people say, is more fun - and this is exactly what happened to Missouri's Geological Survey way back when. Originally established as the Geological Survey of Missouri in 1853, the agency was ndoned in 1861 -- a casualty of the Civil War.

Those days are gone, but of Missouri's impressive multi-million dollar ndustry can still be traced to discoveries based on patient alignment and balance every six stratigraphic work and mapping by Survey geologists. Geology plays as important a part in the relopment of mineral wealth today as it did a centruy ago....and the Missouri ological Survey is more active now that ever before. While its budget no covers ice, wagon hire, and horse leed, the Survey does hire airplanes for aero remote ing; explosives are budgeted use in sophisticated ophysical exploration. Horses, of course, have long since been replaced by a fleet of cars for travel in the field. Survey ogists even make use of photographs taken by side-looking radar from high flying NASA aircraft.

Today is Monday, March 23, the 82nd day of 1970. There are 283 days left in the year.
Today's highlight in history:
On this date in 1933, the German Parliament granted
Adolf Hitler dictatorial powers.
On this date: On this date:

In 1743, a London audience that included King George II heard George Frederick Handel's "Messiah" for the first time.

In 1775, Patrick Henry called on Virginia to arm in case war against England became necessary. He declared: "Give me liberty or give me death."

In 1868, the impeachment trial of President Andrew Johnson began in the U.S. Senate. He was acquitted in May.
In 1901, in the Philippines, a leader of a rebellion against the United States, Emilio Aguinaldo, was captured.

In 1945, in World War II, the U.S. 3rd Army crossed the Rhine. Ten years ago — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev arrived in Paris on a state visit to France. Five years ago — The first two-man American space team was shot into orbit as Virgil I. Grissom and John W. Young were launched from Cape Kennedy.

Kennedy. One year ago — Thousands of teen-agers gathered in Miami's Orange Bowl to demonstrate for decency in entertainment and to express belief in God.

ROLLA - Nine new eromagnetic maps will be vailable for purchase by the blic after 10 a.m. March 30 at Missouri Geological Survey Rolla, Dr. William C. Hayes, tate Geologist and Director of e Survey, announced today

Orders are being accepted for aps to be mailed out at that or copies may chased over-the-counter for cents each. Maps to be sed cover the following 15' adrangles: Eldon, Gravois ills, Green Ridge, Lincoln, elson, Pilot Grove, Smithton, pton, and Warsaw I.

These maps show total agnetic intensity by means of antours at intervals of 10 and of gammas on a scale of 1:62,500. They are being ablished as a part of the issouri Geological Survey's ntinuing program of basic data llection. One of many phisticated tools of the ploration geologist, maps such these give indications of posits of highly magnetic They also pinpoint nerals. large geologic structures which facilitate geologic interpretation areas where mineral deposits being sought. Aeromagnetic mapping (done an airplane towing ignetometer) was initiated in Missouri in 1947 by the Missouri Geological Survey in cooperation with the U. S. Geological Survey and interested mining companies. It is superior to the outdated round magnetic surveys because napping from the air produces complete coverage whereas ound mappinecessarily fails to llect data in inaccessible areas. addition, aerial surveying is hly automated and as a result both faster and cheaper than a nd survey.

Map orders may be addressed the Missouri Geological Missouri Geological Box 250, Rolla, Mo. rey, Box 250, Rolla, They should include the ame of the quadrangle map(s) esired plus 50 cents for ach.

Laos Needs Arms, At Cape State Not U.S. Troops

By RAY CROMLEY NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) In the guerrilla operations of World War II this reporter served with a brilliant young Lao. Now considerably older, he is a seasoned veteran holding a key post in the Laos

He is one of the three or four men in Laos best able to estimate his country's military situation and military

Having served after World War II with Ho Chi Minh in the war against the French, he also understands Hanoi's military strategy

A while back he passed on to me his opinions of the Lao war. Because of the misunderstandings of that con-flict in the United States, what he has to say seems pertinent at this time.

In this Lao officer's personal estimation, American ground combat troops are not what Laos needs.

It's not that kind of a war. The logistics aren't right. The terrain isn't right. It would be impossible to supply Laos has the manpower. The standard of living in many areas is so low that even the wretched army pay attracts volunteers in sufficient numbers.

What the Lao army needs is arms. It requires a good many weapons but most of all it needs more AR-16 rifles. These are light and suitable for the Lao.

But, secondly and perhaps even more important, what the Lao forces require is more training-for officers, noncommissioned officers and men. Especially, they need guerrilla training. Because of the situation, all too often troops are thrown into battle with pitifully little knowledge of what to do.

The North Vietnamese army has the strength to take over Laos in a few weeks, whenever Hanoi wants. But that wouldn't be a smart thing to do. They've learned that in the part of Laos they now occupy, the longer they've stayed, the more unco-operative the population. The North Vietnamese army has been Lao's best ally in uniting the people against it.

They've made a terrible mistake. They've become an invading army. The puppet Pathet Lao (the Lao Communist army) is now nothing. So the North Vietnamese are openly foreigners. This is the same mistake they've been making of late in South Vietnam. The Viet Cong were very effective. But when Hanoi sacrificed those guerrillas and substituted North Vietnamese troops, the story has been

The North Vietnamese in Laos are now in the position the Japanese were in China. They can go wherever they want, take whatever they want. They can run their convoys where they want. They can take the rice crop and the opium crop. But they can't control the country.

Now it's the Lao people against the outsiders (North Vietnamese). U.S. ground armies can't help in this. The Lao people themselves must do the job.

SENSELESS SELF DESTRUCTION

Why did a school of healthy and otherwise normal whales embrace self- destruction by deliberately beaching themselves on the Florida Atlantic shoreline? Local residents, assuming that the beaching had been accidental, managed to free and tow some of them out to deep water. The whales refused to be saved. Back they came to shallow water and onto the beach where, helpless, they died.

As Registered Pharmacists, professional men, we don't sell our wares "door-to-door" nor do we solicit prescription business through the mail. Though we wear the hat of a retail store owner, selling other merchandise traditionally related to the drug store, our prescription service is the heart of our business. We have a responsibility to maintain if we're to retain the professional trust of your doctor. Because of our experience and integrity in compounding and dispensing only the freshest drugs, with the most modern equipment, you need never fear an impersonal, unconcerned, nor irresponsible approach to the filling of your prescriptions. We are mindful of our responsibility and reputation, always anxious to earn your complete confidence.

Government positions pay high starting salaries. They provide much greater security than private employment and excellent opportunity for advancement. Many positions require little or no specialized education or experience.

But to get one of these jobs, you must pass a test. The competition is keen and in some cases only one out of five pass.

Lincoln Service has helped thousands prepare for these tests every year since 1948. It sone of the largest and oldest privately owned schools of its kind and it not connected with the Government.

WASHINGTON (ANF) -Some of the finest military free-fall parachutists from both sides of the Atlantic are perfecting their skills in the skies over Ft. Bragg, N.C.

They are participating in the annual fall six-week tryout and training period conducted by the Golden Knights of the U.S. Army Parachute Team. The jumping session began Oct. 27.

Jumping with the Knights are 10 hopefuls vying for berths on the team, three members of the U.S. Seventh Army Parachute Team from Germany and 12 Red Devils of the British Parachute Regiment free-fall team.

"Each man should get a minimum of five jumps a day and at least 125 to 150 jumps during the six weeks -more if the weather remains good," said Capt. G. M. McPherson, the Golden Knights' executive officer.

The Red Devils are the Golden Knights' counterparts as the official demonstration unit of the British

Larry and George formed a business partnership that began making money as though it had its own printing press. Unfortunately, as the money began rolling in, George frequently had to be rolled home from local bars. He guzzled liquor as though compulsory instead of just legal and became an alcoholic. Unable to operate the business with a partner who was always tanked up, Larry managed to corner George in one of his rare sober moments and, in exchange for a bundle of money, got him to sign a paper giving up all his interest in the partnership. Then George disappeared.

Several months later, however, he suddenly turned up again. Having apparently reflected on his withdrawal from the partnership, he demanded in court that the paper Larry had him sign be declared null and void. "When I signed that paper," insisted alcoholic George, "I didn't valued at $3,000.00 be sold at how what I was doing. I was sober at the time."

ROLLA - Nine new eromagnetic maps will be vailable for purchase by the public after 10 a.m. March 30 at Missouri Geological Survey Rolla, Dr. William C. Hayes, tate Geologist and Director of he Survey, announced today.

Orders are being accepted for aps to be mailed out at that purchased over-the-counter for cents each. Maps to be ased cover the following 15' adrangles: Eldon, Gravois ills, Green Ridge, Lincoln, elson, Pilot Grove, Smithton, pton, and Warsaw I. These maps show total ignetic intensity by means of ntours at intervals of 10 and 62,500. They are being blished as a part of the ssouri Geological Survey's inuing program of basic data llection. One of many phisticated tools of the Illection phoration geologist, maps such these give indications of posits of highly magnetic nerals. They also pinpoint rge geologic structures which acilitate geologic interpretation areas where mineral deposits being sought.

Aeromagnetic mapping (done an airplane towing a metometer) was initiated in ouri in 1947 by the Missouri Geological Survey in cooperation with the U.S. Geological Survey and interested mining companies. It is far superior to the outdated round magnetic surveys because apping from the air produces omplete coverage whereas round mappinecessarily fails to lect data in inaccessible areas. addition, aerial surveying is ighly automated and as a result both faster and cheaper than a ound survey. Map orders may be addressed

WASHINGTON (NEA)

In the guerrilla operations of World War II this reporter served with a brilliant young Lao. Now considerably older, he is a seasoned veteran holding a key post in the Laos

He is one of the three or four men in Laos best able to estimate his country's military situation and military

Having served after World War II with Ho Chi Minh in the war against the French, he also understands Hanoi's military strategy.

A while back he passed on to me his opinions of the Lao war. Because of the misunderstandings of that con-flict in the United States, what he has to say seems pertinent at this time.

In this Lao officer's personal estimation. American ground combat troops are not what Laos needs. It's not that kind of a war. The logistics aren't right. The terrain isn't right. It would be impossible to supply

Laos has the manpower. The standard of living in many areas is so low that even the wretched army pay attracts volunteers in sufficient numbers.

What the Lao army needs is arms. It requires a good many weapons but most of all it needs more AR-16 rifles. These are light and suitable for the Lao. But, secondly and perhaps even more important, what the Lao forces require is more training-for officers, noncommissioned officers and men. Especially, they need guerrilla training. Because of the situation, all too often roops are thrown into battle with pitifully little knowledge of what to do.

The North Vietnamese army has the strength to take over Laos in a few weeks, whenever Hanoi wants. But that wouldn't be a smart thing to do. They've learned that in the part of Laos they now occupy, the longer they've stayed, the more unco-operative the population. The North Vietnamese army has been Lao's best ally in uniting the people against it.

They've made a terrible mistake. They've become an invading army. The puppet Pathet Lao (the Lao Communist army) is now nothing. So the North Vietnamese are openly foreigners. This is the same mistake they've been making of late in South Vietnam. The Viet Cong were very effective. But when Hanoi sacrificed those guerrillas and substituted North Vietnamese troops, the story has been

The North Vietnamese in Laos are now in the position the Japanese were in China. They can go wherever they want, take whatever they want. They can run their convoys where they want. They can take the rice crop and the opium crop. But they can't control the country.

Now it's the Lao people against the outsiders (North Vietnamese). U.S. ground armies can't help in this. The Lao people themselves must do the job.
